RIDDLE

Fanfonne Guillerme, queen of the Camargue, Parisian by birth but Occitan by heart, is the first female manadier. Every 1st Sunday in March, Aimargue organizes a large gathering to pay tribute to this Grand Lady of the "Nacioun gardiano" (the Guardian Nation). This association was founded in the early 1900s by one of his friends. Its purpose is to "maintain and glorify the costume, habits and traditions of the Arles region, of the Camargue and the bullfighting countries". This same friend is also responsible for the creation of the Camargue cross, symbol of the Camargue
